How to Use This Guide in a Group Setting

Group Participants: Review your notes from the message and ask the Holy Spirit to continue to speak to you about your life. Come to eGroup prepared to participate. Watch the message online if you missed it live.

Group Leaders: Give everyone the chance to share, focusing on the questions that connect most with your group. Don't feel you must answer every question. If someone missed the message, allow time for others to fill them in on the main points and highlights.

Getting Started

When have you watched a movie that the ending left you completely disappointed?

If you could re-write that movie's ending, how would it play out?

Embrace the Gospel

In our eGroup discussion guides, we're utilizing a simple structure for studying the Bible together, based on the acronym S.O.A.P. ...

Spirit: Invite The Holy Spirit To Speak To You and To Guide Your Discussion

Begin by praying and inviting the Spirit's activity into your discussion and application of God's Word.

Observation: What Does This Passage Say?

Read Luke 22:21-38 aloud two times, in a couple of different Bible versions, if possible.

What stands out to you as you read these verses (in terms of words, phrases, personalities, etc.), or stood out to you from this week's message on these verses? What questions do they raise?

What are some of the factors that could have contributed to the disciples so quickly losing sight of God's ultimate plan and Christ's teaching? What cultural factors? What human tendencies?

What were some of the old ways Jesus asked His disciples to revert back to after He was gone (verse 36)? What did these old ways represent in the disciples' lives?

What do you think was going through the disciples' minds at the end of this conversation that concludes with verse 38?

Application: What Is God Saying To Me?

How are you attempting to “follow” Jesus without Jesus?

What old ways (before becoming a believer) do you find yourself falling back into without even realizing it?

Do you currently feel more like the child in the crowded place who has your hand securely in the hand of your parent, or do you feel more like the child who looks up and feels the panic of not seeing your parent (with the parent in these scenarios being God)?

How do or can you live more fully in the reality that Jesus did come back and is with you now?

Share one specific thing God is personally speaking to you about from this passage, and any next step this might involve.

Experience the Spirit

Pray: Ask For God's Help In Living Out His Word

Pray for each other in response to general points of application shared in your eGroup discussion, as well as needs and concerns for which you desire prayer.

Have you practiced listening prayer around any members of your eGroup recently?

Engage in Mission

Where/when can you be intentional this coming week in being God's hands and feet to someone you believe to be a non-believer in our community? How can you bless these individuals and help them take the next step forward on their spiritual journey?

How can you as an eGroup be supporting one another in ministering to these people, blessing them, or loving them in intentional ways?

Continue the discussion about ways your eGroup can engage with mission together as a part of the For the City and Beyond vision.
