

Group Discussion Questions Following the Weekend of May 4-5, 2019

Please don't feel you have to answer every question.

Jesus Awareness Alan Kraft, Lead Pastor

Icebreaker

Have you ever been inspired to live differently because of the example of another person?

If so, share what inspired you, and what things are now different for you because of them.

Group Interaction & Application

Read aloud Ephesians 3:1-17. What strikes you or intrigues you the most from these verses ... words, phrases, concepts, or other things?

What stood out to you the most from this weekend's message on these verses by Pastor Alan?

How would you summarize the main point of his message? What was the message's primary take-away for you, and why?

As Pastor Alan pointed out, these verses give us some insight into the oneness and uniquenesses of the trinity.

Beyond simply regurgitating the message, how would you describe what we learn from these verses about God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit?

How are they the same and how are they different, and what are the implications of this?

With each being fully God, how do they work together to accomplish God's desires and communicate His heart?

What might it look like for a person to have a thriving relationship with each person of the trinity, and the trinity as a whole?

How completely do you resonate with the concept of a "Jesus-centered mindfulness?" (verse 17) Explain.

Do you feel Jesus is more of a tenant or an integral member of your life these days, and why?

What things keep you from giving Jesus deeper levels of involvement and connection?

What practical things might you do to remind you of Jesus' presence with you throughout your day, moving Him into a more integral role in your life? What's the next step for you in making this happen?
