Last Week's Givings –

OUTLINE

I. As mature Christians, we should bear fruit for the kingdom of God and not just exist in this world.
(Mathew 21:18-22)

II. Bearing fruit means your character and conduct, as a mature Christian, will reflect the character and conduct of Christ, becoming more like Him in attitudes and actions – we should be in unity with Christ.
(John 15:4; Ecclesiastes 4:9-10)

III. Without faith, there is no pleasing God. Without faith, there is no mature Christian.
(Hebrews 11:6; John 3:16)

IV. Faith is the fuel that propels the mature Christian to trust God to accomplish things through them that they couldn't do alone. (Matthew 21:21; Luke 17:6)

V. Through faith in God, mature Christians can accomplish things we never dreamed of for the kingdom of God. (Matthew 21:22; Philippians 4:13)

Only faith can get you through the hard times, and only faith can do the impossible. So, whatever you do – do it in faith.
