KEY VERSE

Revelation 3:16

‘So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth.’

OUTLINE

I. Mature Christians are not content with merely existing as a church. Instead, they desire to see the church become an essential part of their community. (Romans 12:9–21)

II. The mature Christian understands that he or she is to serve the master – Jesus Christ. Servanthood is a position of action, not relaxation. (Colossians 3:23–25)

III. The mature believer should be recognized as a devoted servant who exemplifies a strong work ethic, harmony, love, compassion, righteousness, and peace within their community. They are blessed and should be a blessing to others, regardless of the circumstances. (Romans 12:9–21)

Don’t be a Laodicea. Don’t be complacent just because you have a house and a nice church, or think you’ve got it made. Go out into the world and share the GOODNESS of Jesus with everyone you meet.

Love Y’all Cary
