OUTLINE

I. The more mature you become as a Christian, the more you trust God in all things. (Psalm 91:1,2)

II. The wiser we become, the more we understand that God is our fortress for refuge, strength, and good spiritual health. (Psalm 91:4-9)

III. God, Jesus, Holy Spirit, and all of His angels are our protection from ANYTHING that might prevent believers from doing His will – if we are in His will. (Psalm 91:10-16)

Reflection, retrospection, whatever you want to call it, is a gift from God. When we look back on our past seasons of life, we not only see the hand of God working throughout our lives, but we also feel an indescribable gratitude for His protection over us.

It is simple to me, either God is everything to us, or He is nothing. I prefer Him to be everything to me.
