Sean Smith Speaking

GETTING TO KNOW YOU:

1. What did you want to be when you “grew up”? What dreams ignited your imagination when you were younger? What inspires you today?

LOOKING BACK:

Our most radical Christianity should never be in our past. You can't go with God and stay where you are. It takes initiative to step into divine opportunities. If we will throw our carnal cautions to the wind what could God do? On Sunday, guest speaker, Sean Smith shared this inspiring message from 1 Samuel 14

DIGGING DEEPER:

Verse: 1 Samuel 14:1-23

Saul was paralyzed by fear. The people were hiding in caves. Jonathan bravely went to battle. On Sunday, Sean shared that the enemy will often draw a “chicken line” and then dare us to cross it. He said, “You must leave your comfort zone and go through the battle zone to enter your blessing zone.”

2. Share a time when you were conflicted with the choice to stand idly by or to replace your fears with the courage to act. What did you do?

Courage speaks to those who don't have it yet. When the enemy ran, all the people came out of their caves and pursued them. Jonathan's courage started a movement.

3. When have you ever been inspired by someone else's courage?

TAKING IT HOME:

In 1 Samuel 14:6 Jonathan says, “Come, let's go...Perhaps the Lord will act on our behalf. Nothing can hinder the Lord from saving, whether by many or by few.”

4. What cliffs is God asking you to climb for him? What maybe's would you like to see God turn into miracles? What would it take for your Christian walk to be characterized by this kind of “expectancy”?
