Pastor Dale Oquist Speaking

Recap:

Dale continued our "I love a Good Story" series on Sunday with the story of Gideon. It is a story of grace and growing up. It is about trust in God. It is about learning what it means that "when I am weak, then I am strong" (2 Corinthians 12:10). It is about knowing that even in the toughest times of our lives, God has not abandoned us, but is with us as much as when everything is going great.

Verses:

Judges 6-7

Questions:

1. What is the best advice you have ever been given?
2. Are you the type of person who would rather give or receive advice?
Discuss
3. What are some of your favorite things in life? These are generally the things you spend your time and money on.
4. As a parent, grandparent or even concerned friend – have you given someone warning or concern regarding a decision someone was making that you know will not be beneficial? You know your advice is good, yet they ignore it, don't heed your counsel
5. Pastor Dale made the statement, "heroism is optional and obedience is not." Discuss a time you felt led to follow God's will but were afraid of the repercussions.
6. God used Gideon who was the weakest member of the weakest tribe of Israel. Was there a time God called you to do something that you felt ill equipped to do? How did you respond?
