Joshua 10:22-24

²² Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me." ²³ So they brought the five kings out of the cave—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon.

²⁴ When they had brought these kings to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the army commanders who had come with him, "Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came forward and placed their feet on their necks.

Dwight D Eisenhower, D-Day

“Your task will not be an easy one. Your enemy is well trained, well equipped and battle-hardened. He will fight savagely...I have full confidence in your courage, devotion to duty and skill in battle. We will accept nothing less than full victory! Good luck! And let us beseech the blessing of Almighty God upon this great and noble undertaking.”

A dark, atmospheric painting of a church interior. The scene is dimly lit, with light filtering through a window or doorway in the background, creating a sense of depth and mystery. Several figures are visible, some standing and some seated, engaged in what appears to be a religious service or prayer. The overall mood is solemn and contemplative.

Revelation 19:11-16

¹¹ I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice He judges and wages war.

¹² His eyes are like blazing fire, and on His head are many crowns. He has a name written on Him that no one knows but he Himself.

¹³ He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and His name is the Word of God.

¹⁴ The armies of heaven were following Him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean.

¹⁶ On his robe and on His thigh, He has this name written: "King of kings and Lord of lords."

We were made for glory

"All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" – Romans 3:23

"Even though God has the right to show his anger and his power, he is very patient with those on whom his anger falls, who are destined for destruction. He does this to make the riches of his glory shine even brighter on those to whom he shows mercy, who were prepared in advance for glory." - Romans 9:22-23
