#139 - Praise to the Lord, vss. 1, 2, 3, 4

(Joachim Neander, Catherine Winkworth, Paul Schilling, Rupert E. Davis, arr. James Engebretson) One License # AFP20250113

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, now to his temple draw near; join me in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigning bears thee on eagle's wings, e'er in his keeping maintaining.

God's care enfolds all, whose true good he upholds.

Hast thou not known his sustaining?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;"
surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee.

Ponder anew what the Almighty can do, who with his love doth befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, who doth nourish thy life and restore thee, fitting thee well for the tasks that are ever before thee.

Then to thy need God as a mother doth speed, spreading the wings of grace o'er thee.

Litany of the Day

Leader: God's grace surrounds us in ordinary moments and unexpected places.

People: We rejoice, for every good gift invites us into gratitude.

Leader: We celebrate the people whose love, service, and generosity strengthen this community.

People: We rejoice in what God is doing through all of us together.

Leader: Gratitude opens our eyes to abundance and our hearts to our neighbors.

People: With joy, we share what we have so that others may flourish. We rejoice in God's abundant grace and become a people of joyful generosity. Amen.

Scripture

Deuteronomy 8:6-18 NRSV

Rev. Lauren Boyd

Therefore, keep the commandments of the Lord your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey, a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. You shall eat your fill and bless the Lord your God for the good land that he has given you.

“Take care that you do not forget the Lord your God by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes that I am commanding you today. When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them and when your herds and flocks have multiplied and your silver and gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied, then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous[a] snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock. He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you and in the end to do you good. Do not say to yourself, ‘My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.’ But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.

Response After Reading

Pastor: The Scripture of faith for the people of faith.

ALL: Thanks be to God

Sermon

“Lest You Forget”

Closing Hymn #2001 - We Sing to You, O God, vss. 1, 2, 3, 4

One License #AFP20250131

(Gracia Grindal, John Darwall, arr. James Engebretson)

We sing to, You, O God, the rock who gave us birth.

Let our rejoicing sing Your name in all the earth.

To You, O God, let songs be raised, in joyful hymns our feast of praise.

We wandered far from home out in a desert land.

You shielded with Your love our fearful pilgrim band.

You kept us safe within Your arms and sheltered us against the storm.

You bear us through the world, an eagle to her young who rises on her wings and bears us toward the sun.

We ride the vaults of light and air, and trust in Your unfailing care.

O God, eternal God, we hide within Your wings
the everlasting arms to whom our praises ring.
Your Word is true. Your way is just. You are the God in whom we trust.
