O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine. Alleluia, alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing Creator, Son, and Holy Ghost, alleluia, alleluia!

Honoring Our Saints

Scripture

Mark 6:30-44 (The Voice)

Now the twelve returned from their travels and told Him what they had done, whom they had seen, and how they had spread the news of God's kingdom. Jesus (to the disciples): Let us go out into the wilderness for a while and rest ourselves.

The crowds gathered as always, and Jesus and the twelve couldn't eat because so many people came and went. They could get no peace until they boarded a boat and sailed toward a deserted place. But the people would not be put off so easily. Those along the shore who recognized Jesus followed along the coast. People pushed out of all the cities and gathered ahead of Him so that when Jesus came ashore and saw this crowd of people waiting for Him in a place that should have been relatively deserted, He was moved with compassion. They were like sheep without a shepherd. He began to teach them many things as the day passed; at last the disciples came to Jesus, and said, Disciples: It is getting late, and there is nothing around for miles. Send these people to the surrounding villages so they can buy something to eat.

Jesus: Why don't you give them something to eat?

Disciples: What? It would cost a fortune to buy bread for these people!

Jesus: Does anyone have any bread? Go and see.

Disciples: There are five pieces of flatbread and two fish, if that makes any difference.

Jesus: Listen, tell them to gather in smaller groups and sit on that green patch of grass.

And so the disciples gathered the people in large groups, and they sat down. Jesus took the five pieces of flatbread and the two fish, looked up to heaven, thanked God for the food, and broke it. He gave the pieces to the disciples to distribute, and all the people ate until no one was hungry. Then they gathered twelve baskets full of leftovers. That day, 5,000 men ate their fill of the bread when Jesus fed the hungry crowd.

Closing Hymn Let Us Be Makers

(Franny Crosby, Marcia McFee, arr. Jenna Duxbury)

Let us be makers, makers of change,
born of our passions, with limitless range.
We pray for guidance, we seek your grace;
be with us now, God, in this holy place.

Let us be makers, makers of change,
Compassion and courage with each new exchange.
As we discern, God, our offerings now,
Gift us and bless us, show us just how.

Holy are you, God, with power and might.
Heaven and earth fill with glory and light.
Sing we hosanna, we come in your name.
Sing we hosanna, the saints sing the same.

Praise to the maker, the One who gives breath,
Praise to Christ Jesus, who reigns over death.
Praise to the Spirit, our strength and our friend.
Three-in-One present, world without end.
