

“A Family for Who?”

“But when you give a reception, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed...”

Luke 14:13-14a

Let go of your _____ and accept God’s

_____.

(Luke 14:1-11; 19:10; Phil. 2:8-9)

Don’t let _____ and _____ or _____ and _____ distract you from heaven, or you’ll get hell.

(Exod. 24:11; Psalm 23:5; Isaiah 25:6-8; Luke 13:24-28; 14:15-24; Rev. 19:9)

Let KCC be a family for _____ AND . . .

go be a family for _____.

(1 Sam. 16:7; Psalm 51:17; Matt. 5:13; Luke 14:12-14)

Discussion Questions

1. Look over Luke 14:1-24. If you were a dinner guest at this meal, what would you have walked home talking about?
2. Share about when you accepted Jesus’ invitation to eternal life.
3. Do you ever wonder if you’ll be one of those who bang on the door in Luke 13:24-28? How does John 10:27-29 and Rom. 8:38-39 ensure you of your salvation?
4. Read Luke 1:52; 14:11; 18:14. Why is this theme so important to Jesus (hint: Phil. 2:8-11)?
5. Who is it hardest to humble yourself with? What is one way you can be more humble with them?
6. Why do you think Jesus equates receiving eternal life with attending a feast?
7. In Jesus’ parable in Luke 14:16-24, 3 excuses are given: things you own, business dealings, and social interactions. In what ways are (are not) those a place of pride or distraction in your life?
8. What are the names of the “2.3” 😊 spiritually poor people that the Holy Spirit is encouraging you to be a family for?
9. Pray to be a family for one another and pray to be a family for _____.
