Discussion Questions

1. What is your favorite (real or fictional) love story? What is it about the story that makes it your favorite?
2. How would you define love? What do you think is one of the best ways to express love to another person? To God? To yourself?
3. Look over your sermon notes. How do you see these truths affecting your life?
4. Read Luke 7:36–50. This is a love story within a love story. What is Jesus’s main point in this love story? How does the main point of these stories apply to you personally? How can you apply what is taught here in how you express your love for others?
5. Why do you think God loves you? The correct answer has more to do with who God is than who you are. Now read 1 Jn 4:8,16. What do these verses indicate as to why God loves you? What is your emotional response to this truth?
6. Describe what you think the world would be like if God was not a God of love? Now describe a world where everyone not only appreciated God’s love for them, but also reflected it back to others.
7. Who are some specific people you think God would like to demonstrate His love to through you?
