Discussion Questions

1. What is one the kindest things that you remember someone doing for you? How did those actions make you feel?
2. Look over all five of the character traits of a Christian as described in your sermon notes, taking time to share your thoughts about each one of them.
3. Which one of the five character traits do you find to be most natural for you? Which one is the hardest for you? Why?
4. Why do you think that people rarely use these character traits to describe Christians they know? Getting really personal, if you dare: How do you think people describe you?
5. In Luke 10:25–37, Jesus tells a story about someone who exemplified the traits mentioned in 1 Pet. 3:8, and Jesus also mentions two religious people who didn't. Read the story and then discuss why this story is so well-known amongst non-Christians as well as Christians.
6. How does a Christian develop these character traits? See Phil. 2:13,14 for help in answering this question and refer back to last week's message if necessary.
