1 Peter 5:10,11

Some hopeful advice about your _____:

God is going to fix _____. (1 Pet. 5:10,11)

Some helpful advice about your _____:

1. God may not be _____ your suffering, but He is _____ that suffering to _____ and _____ you.

(1 Pet. 5:6; 2 Cor. 4:17)

2. _____ demonstrates that you are focused on _____.

_____ demonstrates that you are focused on _____.

(1 Pet. 5:7; Phil. 4:6)

3. Follow _____ path and all will be _____.

Follow the _____ path and all will be _____.

(1 Pet. 5:8,9; James 4:7)

Discussion Questions

1. What is one of your biggest dreams about your future? What do you need to do for this dream to come true?
2. Review your sermon notes. Which point stuck out the most to you and why?
3. How often do you think about what Heaven is going to be like? What are some of the things you hope will be your experience in Heaven?
4. Why do people (we) complain about suffering? What does that reveal about our view of suffering? What is the biblical view of suffering? (Hint: Read 2 Cor. 4:17,18; Rom. 5:3,4; 8:18,28; James 1:2-4.)
5. Share a story from your own life where God used suffering in your life to improve you. Describe specifically what it was in you that God improved.
6. People tend to go to two opposite extremes in their attitudes toward the devil. One extreme is to totally ignore the he exists, the other view is to constantly be worried about him. What are the dangers unique to each of these views? What is the correct attitude and response for the Believer to have toward the devil? (Hint: Read 1 Pet. 5:8,9; James 4:7; 1 Jn. 4:1-4; 5:18.)
7. What is one way you plan to respond to this sermon?
