

“The Rest of Your Life”

1 Peter 4:1,2

Some good practices:

1. When it comes to God’s will, don’t start by asking “What should I ____?”
Start by asking “Who shall I ____?” (Psa. 90:10,12; 1 Pet. 4:1,2)
2. Get your _____ right in order to get your “_____” right. (Rom. 12:2; 2 Cor. 10:5)

Some bad practices:

Four reasons for not desiring God’s will:

1. You don’t _____ God. (1 Pet. 4:2)
2. You enjoy doing _____. (1 Pet. 4:3,4)
3. You’re not too _____. (1 Pet. 4:5; Mt. 6:33)
4. You’re much too _____. (1 Pet. 4:7–10)

A great truth:

Live your life for the _____ of God and you’ll be _____ now and forever. (1 Pet. 4:11)

Discussion Questions

1. What event are you counting down the days to?
2. When have you desperately wanted to know God’s will for your life? What did you do? What happened as a result?
3. Review your sermon notes and make insightful comments.
4. What do you think is the biggest reason people don’t want to do God’s will? Which of the four reasons given in the sermon for not doing God’s will is the one you struggle with the most? Explain.
5. Read the following verses that specifically speak about God’s will, and then explain what God’s will is: John 6:40; 1 Thess. 4:3; 5:18; 1 Pet. 2:13–15; 1 Pet. 4:1–4.
6. How do you think the world would be different if people strove to do God’s will? How is your life different because you are striving to do God’s will?
