Discussion Questions

1. If you have a builder in the group who has worked with foundations, ask them to discuss them briefly.
2. Read Matthew 7:24 - 27 aloud. What catches your eye?
3. Read Acts 10:24, 44-45. Cornelius is a roman soldier (and the first gentile) who received the Holy Spirit in a city he was only in because of the work of Herod the Great, a self-glorifying man. What does this reveal about how God works in the world?
4. What areas of your life do you have the most "power?" In what ways do you use this power to build your own kingdom? To build God's?
5. With whom are you most likely to people please? Why? Read Gal. 1:10. What's at stake if you continue to people please?
6. What is your "Herodium" — the place where you boast of your own victories? Read 2 Cor. 12:9. What area of weakness is Christ inviting you to boast in His strength, instead of your own? How will you do this?
7. In what ways did you (did you not) spend your last week building your life on the rock of Jesus?
8. Pray for one another.
