LUKE 24:1-6

The background is a dark, textured surface. In the center, there is a circular inset showing a close-up of crumpled, light-colored paper. Below the paper, a pink flower with white petals is visible. The text is overlaid on this background in a large, bold, white font.

Easter reminds us that the most important thing God ever said was not shouted from a platform – it was revealed through an empty tomb.

Luke 24:5-6

Why seek ye the living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but is risen

The Word on Friday...
Finished

Isaiah 52:14

As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

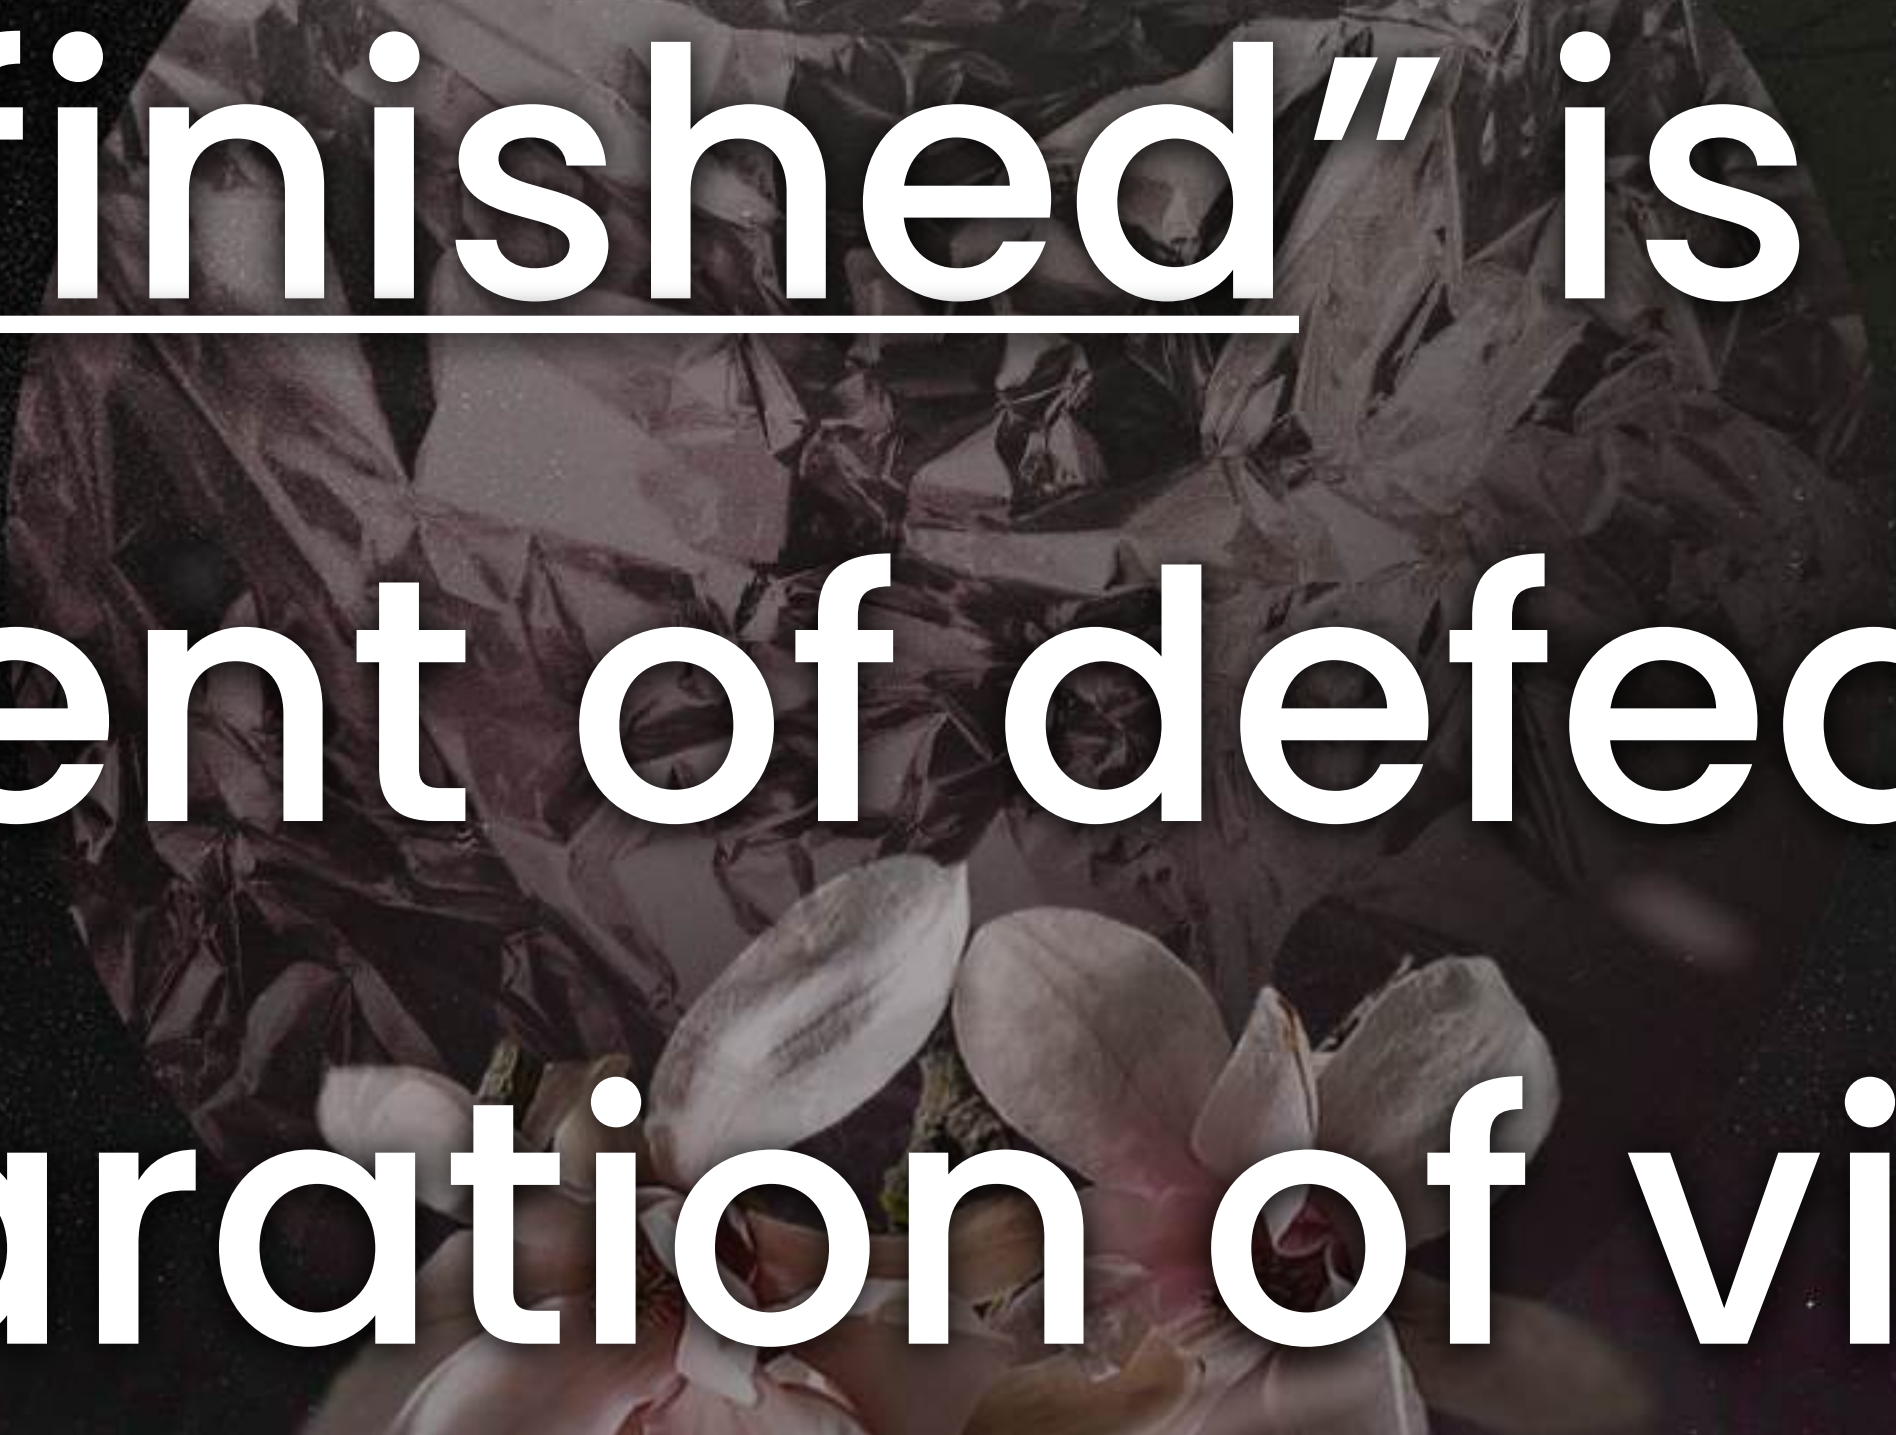

John 19:30

When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

A circular arrangement of crumpled brown paper and white flowers is centered on a dark, textured background. The paper is crumpled and layered, creating a textured, spherical shape. Below the paper, several white flowers with pinkish centers are visible. The overall composition is symmetrical and visually striking due to the contrast between the light colors and the dark background.

If all you see is the cross... it looks like God has lost

A circular graphic is centered in the background. The top half of the circle is filled with crumpled, light-colored paper. The bottom half features a soft-focus pink flower with white petals. The entire scene is set against a dark, textured background with scattered white specks.

“It is finished” is not a statement of defeat; it is a declaration of victory

The Word on Saturday...

Just because God is silent... does not mean
He is absent.

The background is a dark, textured surface with a circular inset in the center. The inset shows a crumpled piece of brown paper, possibly a gift wrap, with a pink flower, likely a lily, partially visible at the bottom. The text is overlaid on this background in a large, white, sans-serif font.

Just because something is sealed on earth...does not mean it's settled in heaven.

A circular collage is centered on a dark, textured background. The collage is divided into two horizontal sections. The top section shows crumpled, light-colored paper, possibly representing a globe or a piece of trash. The bottom section shows several pink flowers, possibly magnolias, in bloom. The entire scene is surrounded by small, white, confetti-like particles that appear to be falling or floating. The text 'The Word on Sunday...' is written in a large, bold, white sans-serif font across the middle of the collage.

Because the resurrection was not just an event—it was an invasion.

guard death...Collapsed
in the presence of life.
