

Reckless: without thinking or caring about the consequences of an action

Principle #1: This Appointment is Intentional

John 4:4
And he must needs go through Samaria

The phrase “must needs go through Samaria” is not a physical or geographic necessity: Jesus had a divine appointment in Samaria

- Jesus intentionally walked through the very place the Jews avoided

There is a moment in your life in which you must decide to stop letting people dictate what you do and don't do

- Never allow the expectations of others make you into someone you were never meant to be

God is preparing you for a divine appointment

Even though this woman wasn't seeking God – God was seeking her

Psalm 37:23

The steps of a [good] man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

Romans 8:28

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to [his] purpose.

Psalm 31:14-15

But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou [art] my God. 15 My times [are] in thy hand

God is intentionally walking through your Samaria

Principle #2: This Appointment is Transformational

John 4:10

Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

If you only knew...

- If you only knew what God could do for you
- If you only knew the plans that God has for you
- If you only knew how much God wanted to do in your life
- If you only knew the potential that lay deep within you

What stood in the way of this woman's revelation?

John 4:11

The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

1: She was thinking in the natural instead of the supernatural

- You cannot limit what God can do in your life just because you can't figure it out

John 4:12

Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

2: She thought in the realm of history rather than destiny

- As long as you are tied to your history – you will never be able to reach your destiny
- Jesus came to break her history and lead her into her destiny

John 4:10

Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink

A greater revelation of the Person of Christ will always bring a greater revelation of the Power of Christ

Principle #3: This Appointment is Confrontational

John 4:15-18

The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw. 16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. 17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband: 18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

This divine appointment was not just to inspire this woman about the potential of her future – this appointment was to invoke this woman to deal with the pitfalls of her present

You will never conquer anything you are not willing to confront
