OUR FATHER

Study Guide, Lesson 2
Adrian Varlack, Jr.

SYNOPSIS

Our heavenly Father desires to commune and communicate with us. We should desire to commune and communicate with Him. One of the ways this is accomplished is through prayer. Jesus taught and modeled prayer for us. We should pray like Jesus prayed.

SCRIPTURAL FOUNDATION

Matthew 6:9-15 NIV

SERIES APPROACH AND SCOPE

1. Approach
    a. Orthodoxy - Right principle (doctrine)
    b. Orthopraxy - Right practice (application)
        i. Individual
        ii. Catholic (corporate)
2. Scope
    a. Lesson One - An Overview of Prayer
    b. Lesson Two - Our Father 1
    c. Lesson Three - Our Father 2
3. Definition
    a. Prayer is communion and communication with God

LESSON TWO - OUR FATHER 1

1. The New Sense of the Torah

2. A New Depth Of Prayer - the Vertical
    a. This is “how” we should pray
    b. A radical dynamic
        i. “Our Father”
        ii. “In heaven”
        iii. “Hallowed be your name”
        iv. “Your kingdom come”
        v. “Your will be done”
        vi. “On earth as it is in heaven”

ADDITIONAL READING

1. Read Mark 4:1-34
    a. What is the Word of God like?
    b. What is the secret of the kingdom of God/
    c. What is the kingdom of God like in the Parable of the Growing Seed and the Parable of the Mustard Seed?
2. After having read the passage, pray about the kingdom of God being revealed and expanded in your own life and the life of the church.