

MAJOR ON THE MINORS: FAITH IN THE PROPHETIC BOOKS

The Minor Prophets may be some of the most overlooked books of the Bible, but their messages are anything but minor. In this multi-week series, Major on the Minors, we'll journey through the lives and ministries of God's twelve prophetic messengers and discover how their stories intersect with our own.

Major on the Minors: Week 4

Obadiah

Faith When You Feel Forgotten

Key Verse:
"Because of the violence you did to your close relatives in Israel, you will be filled with shame and destroyed forever."
Obadiah 1:10

Background

- Obadiah is the shortest book in the Old Testament (21 verses).
- The message is directed toward Edom, descendants of Esau.
- Edom rejoiced over Judah's suffering instead of helping.

- God reminds His people that He sees injustice and remembers His promises.

---

1. Our Deepest Wounds Can Come from the Closest People

Obadiah 1:10-14

Key Thought:
Betrayal hurts differently than opposition.

Remember:

- Sometimes our greatest disappointments come from those closest to us.
- People who know us best often know where we are most vulnerable.
- God sees every hurt and every act of betrayal.

---

2. Don't Let Someone Else's Sin Distract You From What God Is Doing in You

Jeremiah 29:11-14
John 14:15-17

Key Thought:
While God deals with others, He is still working in us.

Remember:

- It is easy to focus on what others have done.
- God often uses difficult seasons to shape our character.
- The Holy Spirit leads us into truth and transformation.

---

3. God Sees More Than the Moment

Obadiah 1:15-21

Key Thought:
Just because God hasn't done it yet doesn't mean He hasn't seen it.

Remember:

- God saw every act of Edom.
- God saw every tear of Judah.
- God remembered His covenant.
- God's timing is rarely our timing, but His faithfulness never expires.

Final Takeaway

When you feel forgotten:

- Trust God's perspective.
- Listen to God's voice.
- Hold on to God's promises.

Big Idea:

The God who remembered His promise to Jacob has not forgotten you.
