

Envision Pt. 2
Destiny

---

LifeGroup Discussion Guide
for the week of 1/13/2018

CONNECTION

- [1] What comes to mind when you hear the word “destiny”? How do you relate this to your own life?

OBSERVATION AND INTERPRETATION

- [2] What does it mean to you to know that God is personally with you in your past, your present, and at the end of your life?
- [3] Do you feel like your end will be better than your beginning? If not, what hope can you take from today’s message on destiny?
- [4] According to Pastor Rich, what is the difference between God’s sovereignty and the gift of free will?

Envision Pt. 2
Destiny

---

LifeGroup Discussion Guide
for the week of 1/13/2018

CONNECTION

- [1] What comes to mind when you hear the word “destiny”? How do you relate this to your own life?

OBSERVATION AND INTERPRETATION

- [2] What does it mean to you to know that God is personally with you in your past, your present, and at the end of your life?
- [3] Do you feel like your end will be better than your beginning? If not, what hope can you take from today’s message on destiny?
- [4] According to Pastor Rich, what is the difference between God’s sovereignty and the gift of free will?

[5] Why can't free will be separated from the finished work of the cross?

APPLICATION

Three Battles we all face ...

[6] How should we handle rejection as Christians from a biblical point of view?

[7] What does it mean to "not commit the crime for which we serve?"
How does God want us to handle accusations?

[8] What attitude do we need to have when put in a position we really don't want to be in? How is that reflected in our behavior?

REFLECTION

Jesus' sanity was questioned by his family, He was betrayed by his friends, and rejected by the people he came to save—ultimately by the Father on the cross. He experienced severe verbal and physical abuse leading up to His crucifixion. Read 2 Corinthians 1:5 (NASB) and 1 Peter 4:13 (NASB). Some people reject Jesus when they go through traumatic experiences, yet others press into God for comfort and meaning. How can "sharing in the suffering of Christ" lead you into a deeper and special bond with Jesus?

[5] Why can't free will be separated from the finished work of the cross?

APPLICATION

Three Battles we all face ...

[6] How should we handle rejection as Christians from a biblical point of view?

[7] What does it mean to "not commit the crime for which we serve?"
How does God want us to handle accusations?

[8] What attitude do we need to have when put in a position we really don't want to be in? How is that reflected in our behavior?

REFLECTION

Jesus' sanity was questioned by his family, He was betrayed by his friends, and rejected by the people he came to save—ultimately by the Father on the cross. He experienced severe verbal and physical abuse leading up to His crucifixion. Read 2 Corinthians 1:5 (NASB) and 1 Peter 4:13 (NASB). Some people reject Jesus when they go through traumatic experiences, yet others press into God for comfort and meaning. How can "sharing in the suffering of Christ" lead you into a deeper and special bond with Jesus?

