CONNECTION

- [1] What makes superhero movies attractive to so many people? Which superhero is your favorite? Why?

OBSERVATION & INTERPRETATION

- [2] If you had the opportunity to receive any one superpower of the Incredibles's which one would it be? How do you imagine yourself using this power?

- [3] What motivates the Incredibles to use their superpowers? How is this motivation like or different from a Christian's motivation to use their unique personality, talents, and spiritual gifts empowered by the Holy Spirit?

APPLICATION

- [4] David (see Psalm 139:14 NKJV) knew his uniqueness as God's creation just as we know we are Christ's workmanship destined to make a difference with our unique personality, talents, interests, and spiritual gifts (see Ephesians 2:10 NKJV). How can we, like Jack-Jack, start to discover and use what God has created in us?

- [5] Sometimes we can become dissatisfied with our uniqueness and roles, leading to jealousy, or we can become puffed up with pride and arrogance. How does today's message on being God's unique creation, along with what Paul teaches on roles within the Body of Christ (see 1 Corinthians 12:12-27 NKJV) help us celebrate our uniqueness while keeping a healthy perspective?

- [6] Sometimes our life experience makes it hard to see in ourselves what others see in us, leading to putting ourselves down or discounting complements of our talents and achievements. What beliefs or attitudes do you have about yourself that make receiving compliments or recognizing your unique gifts, talents, and achievements hard for you?

REFLECTION

- [7] How has living up to someone else's expectations taken you outside of God's plans and purposes for your life? Is fear holding you back from taking a faith step towards your calling? What is God speaking to you about changing these situations?
