for the week of 5/26/2018

CONNECTION

- [1] What's a status that you've sought to achieve in your past? Making a certain team, accomplishing a certain task, appearing a certain way, etc.

OBSERVATION & INTERPRETATION

- [2] Have you ever found yourself in what feels like a "holding pattern" between what you feel you need and what God might have for you? Explain your experience.

[3] Jesus said in Matthew 6:33 ESV "But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you."

What truth does this speak to your relationship status no matter where you find yourself today?

APPLICATION

[4] Let's start with seeking first the kingdom of God. How can you take this first step this week?

[5] The second portion of this verse says to seek God's righteousness. We understand that our righteousness comes from our relationship with Jesus. As Dustin talked about, the burnt offering of Jesus is literally a soothing aroma to the Lord. When we receive Jesus, the Father now delights in us the same way He does His own son. How does this change your thought process in approaching God and His righteousness?

REFLECTION

[7] Take time as a group to sit before God with a pen and paper. As you seek God and His righteousness, what is the significance of your status that He is revealing to you? What, in the midst of your trial, pain, or joy is God saying to you and doing through you? After some time, let's share together.
