

Fixer Upper Pt. 4 Renovation

LifeGroup Discussion Guide for the week of 10/28/2017

CONNECTION

- [1] How do you deal with the space in your home: Clutter everywhere? Little piles of projects? Everything in its place? Immaculate! Just don't look in my closet?

APPLICATION

When it comes to our families, Pastor Rich taught there are seven spaces that may need renovation in order to build our family relationships according to God's design.

- [2] Grace. Why should grace be the first space to look at for potential renovation?
- [3] Wisdom. Pastor Rich illustrated his point on renovating the wisdom space by using a "wisdom journal"—how might using this help you lead your family with Biblical wisdom?
- [4] Calmness/Peacefulness. What is the connection between calmness and peacefulness? How do we obtain these so they can manifest in our homes?

[5] Easiness. Easiness comes from putting your family burdens on God's shoulders and by having realistic expectations of other family members. Where do you see yourself as needing to "take it easy"?

[6] Fun! Healthy families play together in ways everyone feels valued. On a scale of 1 to 10 how would you rate your family's fun factor? What needs to happen to increase your family fun factor by three points?

[7] Inclusiveness. Does everyone in your family feel included? If not what needs to change? How can you extend your family inclusiveness to those outside your immediate family?

[8] Realness. Being able to share your thoughts, feelings, and opinions without shame or ridicule is essential to healthy families. How can you encourage healthy sharing of thoughts and feelings in your family?

TAKING IT HOME

As you evaluate the seven spaces in relation to your home, which ones appear to be strengths and which of the seven spaces appear to be growth areas? Celebrate your strengths as a family and then for each growth area write down one thing you can do to improve this space in your home. Taking one space at a time (never try too many changes at once) spend one month implementing your plan until it becomes a "part" of your family. Each week, evaluate how you are doing and make modifications as necessary.
