

Rooted
Dustin Ludwig

LifeGroup Bible Study & Discussion Guide
for the week of 8/6/2017

CONNECTION

- [1] Dustin talked about “Moses moments” this weekend, those times where you really feel like you blew it or missed the mark. Take some time to share one “Moses moment” from this week. Remember, no one is perfect!

OBSERVATION & APPLICATION

- [2] One of the most powerful things about the account of Moses is the moment that he has an encounter with God on Mt. Horeb after a pretty bad “Moses moment” – murdering the Egyptian.

Read Exodus 3:1-6. What stand out most to you in this passage?

- [3] Dive into the idea of Moses “turning aside” to experience God. Do you think there may be moments where God may be speaking or calling you to something waiting for you to turn aside? How are you doing turning aside to hear God on a daily basis? What are your challenges?

Rooted
Dustin Ludwig

LifeGroup Bible Study & Discussion Guide
for the week of 8/6/2017

CONNECTION

- [1] Dustin talked about “Moses moments” this weekend, those times where you really feel like you blew it or missed the mark. Take some time to share one “Moses moment” from this week. Remember, no one is perfect!

OBSERVATION & APPLICATION

- [2] One of the most powerful things about the account of Moses is the moment that he has an encounter with God on Mt. Horeb after a pretty bad “Moses moment” – murdering the Egyptian.

Read Exodus 3:1-6. What stand out most to you in this passage?

- [3] Dive into the idea of Moses “turning aside” to experience God. Do you think there may be moments where God may be speaking or calling you to something waiting for you to turn aside? How are you doing turning aside to hear God on a daily basis? What are your challenges?

[4] When Moses begins to question if he is the right man for the job in verse 11 with “Who am I?”, God answers a little differently than we may expect with “But I will be with you.”
What is God saying to you in moments of doubt or fear?
How does God’s response to Moses help you take root in fulfilling his call on your life?

[5] Jump back into scripture and read together Jesus’ call to his disciples as he commissions them to go into all the world after his resurrection.
Read together Matthew 28:16-20.

[6] What are the three things Jesus commands his disciples to do?
What are the parallels between how God called Moses and how Jesus commissions his disciples and ultimately each of us?

REFLECTION

[7] Who has God called you to be a Moses to, one who “draws out sons and daughters?”
Who has God called you to influence and where has God called you to take root?
Pray together as a group about the burdens the Lord has placed on your hearts. As you pray, share any promptings or next steps you feel the God is calling you to take.

[4] When Moses begins to question if he is the right man for the job in verse 11 with “Who am I?”, God answers a little differently than we may expect with “But I will be with you.”
What is God saying to you in moments of doubt or fear?
How does God’s response to Moses help you take root in fulfilling his call on your life?

[5] Jump back into scripture and read together Jesus’ call to his disciples as he commissions them to go into all the world after his resurrection.
Read together Matthew 28:16-20.

[6] What are the three things Jesus commands his disciples to do?
What are the parallels between how God called Moses and how Jesus commissions his disciples and ultimately each of us?

REFLECTION

[7] Who has God called you to be a Moses to, one who “draws out sons and daughters?”
Who has God called you to influence and where has God called you to take root?
Pray together as a group about the burdens the Lord has placed on your hearts. As you pray, share any promptings or next steps you feel the God is calling you to take.

