The Author of My Story

Key Passages: Genesis 37: 2-28, Genesis 39: 1-12, 20-23, Genesis 41:4,5,8, 37-41

God wants to be the _____ of my story.

Genesis 37:4, When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him.

Genesis 39:1-2, Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. Potiphar, an Egyptian who was one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there. 2 The Lord was with Joseph so that he prospered, and he lived in the house of his Egyptian master.

My circumstances do _____ have to determine my future!

God is with me through every _____ of my story, but I must _____ to acknowledge Him.

3 When his master saw that the Lord was with him and that the Lord gave him success in everything he did, 4 Joseph found favor in his eyes and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household, and he entrusted to his care everything he owned.

6 Now Joseph was well-built and handsome, 7 and after a while, his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Come to bed with me!" 8 But he refused. 11 One day he went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the household servants was inside...12 She caught him by his cloak and said, "Come to bed with me!" But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house.

There will be _____ moments in my story.

Genesis 41:46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

When _____ is the Author of my story, then my story will be _____!

Life Application: Do I trust God to use difficult moments for my good? Take time this week to reflect on your life up to this point; the good and the bad. Write down how you believe God wants to write your story from here and how you can play your part in that. I Will _____.
