

At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "So who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" He called a small child and had him stand among them. "Truly I tell you," he said, "unless you turn and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child—this one is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoever welcomes one child like this in my name welcomes me.

Matthew 18:1–5, CSB

4 "Ancient moralists regularly [provided] models of heroes and statesmen for their students to imitate; Jesus instead points to a child...disciples must imitate such people of no status, people who recognize their dependence."

- Craig Keener

“Leave the little children alone, and don’t try to keep them from coming to me, because the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

Matthew 19:14, CSB

When your son asks you in the future, 'What is the meaning of the decrees, statutes, and ordinances that the Lord our God has commanded you?' tell him, 'We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand.'

Deuteronomy 6:20, CSB
