A Man and His Time

Keith Boggs | keith@realmomentum.org - @KeithABoggs

Ezekiel 22:30, So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one.

For what it's worth...

- For our generation, one of the s_____ realities in regard to God's call upon men is the number of times we men have surrendered that call upon their lives to the opposite sex.
- In relinquishing that call, the call to be the spiritual leader of our families and the spiritual leaders in our churches, we have allowed our lack of leadership to be the d_____ of our homes, churches, and communities.

2 Tim. 2:21, Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful for the Master, prepared for every good work.

Are you available for the Master?

Ephes. 5:16, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

Time is a precious gift—every second, every minute, every day—use it wisely. You cannot pay the cost of losing time.

Unlike other resources, time cannot be bought or sold, borrowed or stolen, stocked or saved up, manufactured, reproduced, or modified. All we can do is make use of it or not, it [time] nevertheless slips away.

Arthur Brisbane, "Among the aimless, you often hear talk about killing time. People who are constantly killing time are really killing their own chances in life. Those who are destined to become successful are those who make time and use it wisely."
