Psalm

24 How many are your works, LORD!
    In wisdom you made them all;
    the earth is full of your creatures.

25 There is the sea, vast and spacious,
    teeming with creatures beyond number—
    living things both large and small.

26 There the ships go to and fro,
    and Leviathan, which you formed to frolic there.

27 All creatures look to you
    to give them their food at the proper time.

28 When you give it to them,
    they gather it up;
when you open your hand,
    they are satisfied with good things.

29 When you hide your face,
    they are terrified;
when you take away their breath,
    they die and return to the dust.

30 When you send your Spirit,
    they are created,
    and you renew the face of the ground.

31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
    may the LORD rejoice in his works—

32 he who looks at the earth, and it trembles,
    who touches the mountains, and they smoke.

33 I will sing to the LORD all my life;
    I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

34 May my meditation be pleasing to him,
    as I rejoice in the LORD.

35 But may sinners vanish from the earth
    and the wicked be no more.
Praise the LORD, my soul.
Praise the LORD.

(Psalm 104:24-35)

Old Testament

24 So Moses went out and told the people what the Lord had said. He brought together seventy of their elders and had them stand around the tent. 25 Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke with him, and he took some of the power of the Spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied—but did not do so again.

26 However, two men, whose names were Eldad and Medad, had remained in the camp. They were listed among the elders, but did not go out to the tent. Yet the Spirit also rested on them, and they prophesied in the camp. 27 A young man ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

28 Joshua son of Nun, who had been Moses’ aide since youth, spoke up and said, “Moses, my lord, stop them!”

29 But Moses replied, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the Lord’s people were prophets and that the Lord would put his Spirit on them!” 30 Then Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

(Numbers 11:24-30)

New Testament

37 On the last and greatest day of the festival, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, “Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink. 38 Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.” 39 By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.

(John 7:37-39)
