

The Body of Our Lord

1. The bod - y of our Lord, In His trans - fig - u - ra - tion,
 2. The proph - ets had fore - told, His com - ing in - car - na - tion;
 3. God's glo - ry in a cloud, Once filled the Tent of Meet - ing;
 4. The bod - y of God's Son, Trans - fig - ured on the moun - tain,

Shone bright - ly as the sun, In full il - lu - mi - na - tion.
 The Word would make our flesh, His on - ly hab - i - ta - tion.
 The God en - shrined there - in, All Is - rael was en - treat - ing.
 Now clothes the child of God, A - dopt - ed in the Foun - tain.

In na - ture one with God, The Son par - takes in love,
 Now what their mouths fore - told, E - li - jah, Mo - ses, see -
 But now the Fa - ther's cloud, Has filled a hu - man tent -
 When earth's dark grave we leave, Trans - fig - ured we will be;

Of hu - man flesh that we, Par - take of God a - bove.
 The Son of God made man, That we God's sons might be.
 His own be - lov - ed Son, The Glo - ry whom He sent.
 Christ's glo - ry we will share, Through all e - ter - ni - ty.

Music: Johann Crüger, 1647; harm. Felix Mendelssohn, 1840; alt.
 Text: Chad L. Bird, 2016 ©

NUN DANKET ALLE GOTT
 6 7 . 6 7 . 6 6 . 6 6 .