

Psalm 19 Cœli enarrant

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the firmament shows his handiwork.
- 2 One day tells its tale to another,
and one night imparts knowledge to another.
- 3 Although they have no words or language,
and their voices are not heard,
- 4 Their sound has gone out into all lands,
and their message to the ends of the world.
- 5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun;
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
- 6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens
and runs about to the end of it again;
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.
- 7 The law of the LORD is perfect, and revives the soul;
the testimony of the LORD is sure, and gives wisdom to the innocent.
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are just, and rejoice the heart;
the commandment of the LORD is clear, and gives light to the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, and endures for ever;
the judgments of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold,
sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.
- 11 By them also is your servant enlightened,
and in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can tell how often he offends?
cleanse me from my secret faults.
- 13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get dominion over me;
Then shall I be whole and sound,
and innocent of a great offense.

A B Tone I

14 Let the words of my mouth
and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable in your sight,
O LORD my strength and my redeemer.
