

Content in Every Circumstance

Philippians 4:10–23

1. Rejoice in God's Faithful Provision (v. 10–13)

- Greek word for Joy: The word χαίρω (chairō) means “to be glad” or “to take delight in.”

“Contentment is the art of being satisfied with what God gives, without being envious of what He hasn’t given.” – John MacArthur

2. Give and Receive as Partners in the Gospel (v. 14–18)

SLIDE

| | |
|--|---------|
| Cooperative Program (10%) | 110,437 |
| Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (North America Missions) | 2,980 |
| Lottie Moon Christmas Offering (International Missions) | 6,335 |
| North Central Baptist Network (Local Missions) | 3,492 |

SLIDE

| | |
|--|--------|
| Other Missions Financial Partnerships | |
| Loving Choice | |
| Operation Care | |
| Awake Ministries | |
| Sunrise Children's Home | |
| Acts 1:8 Mission Trips (1%) | |
| Community Mission | |
| Kenya Ultimate Wings Rescue Center | |
| Total Other Missions Financial Donations | 61,685 |

SLIDE

| | |
|-----------------------|-----------|
| Total Missions Giving | $184,929 |
|-----------------------|-----------|

3. Trust God's Future Provision, Not Your Future Plans (v. 19–20)

"Faith does not operate in the realm of the possible. There is no glory for God in that which is humanly possible. Faith begins where man's power ends." - George Müller

4. Christian Generosity isn't transactional; it's relational. (v. 21–23)