Worship Notes

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

Mission Spotlight. Too often, we as a church are tempted to have our heads in the sand. We operate by the tyranny of the urgent. The danger of this is that we forget that we are part of a global Church which transcends cultures, denominations, and even time. And God has called His Church to be a missional people. As we seek to love like Jesus, Mission Spotlights most often help us lift our heads above our current circumstances to see what God is doing around the world through the prayers, work, and resources of our church.

Giving: In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind, soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives. One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or online here: <https://www.elexiogiving.com/App/Giving/cherrycreekpres>

Prayer for the Week

Loving God, your goodness is all around us.
But sometimes it seems overshadowed by pain, death, and suffering.
Assure us in times of doubt that you are the God of resurrection.
May our lips sing your praise, and may our lives be a living sacrifice to you. Amen.
(Common Prayer)

Speak, O Lord: "One of Christianity's distinctives is that we worship a God who has spoken - who is not silent. From God the Father, speaking the world into creation, to speaking through His Living word in Christ, to speaking by His Spirit through the written word.

Throughout history the word of God has transformed the most proud leaders and the most hopeless victims, the greatest civilisations and the remotest of villages, in every age to every corner of the world - so incredible is its power. Often today however the preaching of the word has been diminished in value - from its prominence in a service to its passion, but most of all in our own expectation each time we sit down and ask God to speak to us.

In Isaiah the people were performing many acts in the name of God and the Lord said "This is the one to whom I will turn my face - he who is humble and contrite and trembles at my word". It is our prayer that through the power of the spirit, this hymn will prepare people to humbly listen to the Bible being taught and respond to the huge consequences it has on their lives.
