Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

What does communion have to do with missions? Everything. 1 Corinthians 10:17 says, "Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf." This helps us realize that when we take communion, we are not only communing with Christ, we are communing with one another. Even more than this, we're communing with the "holy catholic church," the universal church all over the world. We know that as we take communion today, we take communion alongside brothers and sisters who are doing the same thing in Africa, Asia, Central and South America, and Europe. Communion unites us around Jesus, because no matter who we are or where we are, we all "partake of one loaf."

Giving In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind, soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives. One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or online here: <https://www.elexiogiving.com/App/Giving/cherrycreekpres.org>

Prayer for the Week

Take, O Lord, and receive my entire liberty, my memory, my understanding and my whole will. All that I am and all that I possess You have given me: I surrender it all to You to be disposed of according to Your will. Give me only Your love and Your grace; with these I will be rich enough, and will desire nothing more. (by St. Ignatius of Loyola)

Prayer chain If you would like to be kept up-to-date on prayer needs in our church body, please sign up for the CCPC Prayer chain at cpcprays@cherrycreekpres.org

May We Pray With You? When we join together in prayer, there is a particular power available from God. If you would like prayer and/or prayer for healing, please come forward after the service to find a pastor or elder and we'd love to pray for you and/or anoint you with oil (per James 5).
