

SHOW NOTES

Deeply Adopted

About Lea | Lea Wright is living and serving in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia alongside the ministry of Hope for the Fatherless. She is Ethiopian by birth and American through adoption and spent her growing up years in Colorado. She returned to Ethiopia a year and a half ago and feels a sense of coming full circle in her journey in many ways as she dives into work with HFTF in their work to place children for domestic adoption. Lea loves dancing in her kitchen, loving on the babies that HFTF cares for, playing cards with friends, enjoying a good cup of tea, and going on long walks with her lovely fiancé.

www.hopeforthefatherless.com

www.resources.cafo.org

<https://www.project127.org>