

SHOW NOTES

In this episode of the Raising Generations Podcast, Johanna shares how she cultivates peace for herself and others, pursues a life of service alongside a deep connection to Christ, and how we might remember to connect with the students in our community.

About Johanna | Johanna Erhard brings blessing, vibrant leadership, and joy to Student Ministry. Currently, she serves as the High School Ministry Resident. Johanna is a student, pursuing her counselling degree at Denver Seminary. Johanna hopes to specialize in the needs of Middle and High School students