Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

Call to Worship. Worship is something we offer to God every day of our lives in everything that we do. If we are worshipping as we come in the church doors, why do we have a Call to Worship? Implied in the phrase is the word “corporate.” When we hear the Call to (corporate) Worship, we are called by God as one community to worship Him together. What is unique about Sunday is not that we worship on that day and not others; it is that we worship together.

Valuing Membership. At CCPC, we value membership in our church for a whole host of reasons, but mostly because it is biblical. Our day and age is suspicious of membership and authority, and we recognize that a deep commitment to Christ and His church is something that is becoming increasingly counter-cultural. Our conceptions of “membership” are often tainted by the types of membership we find in culture—Costco, country clubs, credit cards, etc. But biblical membership is something totally different.

Prayer for the Week

Lord, inspire me to live in such a way that my choices each day and my commitment to live in a positive way may transform
the negative into something positive, and the ordinariness of daily life into something extraordinary. Amen.

Giving In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind, soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives. One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or online here: <https://www.elexiogiving.com/App/Giving/cherrycreekpres.org>

May We Pray With You? When we join together in prayer, there is a particular power available from God. If you would like prayer and/or prayer for healing, please come forward after the service to find a pastor or elder and we'd love to pray for you.

Prayer chain If you would like to be kept up-to-date on prayer needs in our church body, please sign up for the CCPC Prayer chain at ccpcprays@cherrycreekpres.org
