Eastertide

Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are visiting Cherry Creek today, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this beautiful Eastertide morning.

Our Mission Spotlight today reminds us that mission isn't only about spreading the gospel abroad in places like Africa. We are called to be missionaries, right here! The time has come when the American church can no longer merely send missionaries. We must be missionaries. Today's mission spotlight, furthermore, reminds us that, though the center of God's mission is to spread the good news of Jesus Christ, the implications of that gospel affect the whole created order. This means that when the church is being missional, it is seeking the type of restoration to the world that the gospel creates and instigates. Loving others in our neighborhood, giving to the poor, coming alongside hurting people...these are all part of the mission of God.

Giving: In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives. One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or online here: <https://www.elexiogiving.com/App/Giving/cherrycreekpres.org>

Prayer for the Week

You have given yourself to us, Lord.
Now we give ourselves for others.
You have raised us with Christ and made us a new people.
As people of the resurrection, we will serve you with joy.
Your glory has filled our hearts.
Help us to glorify you in all things. Amen.
(from The Worship Sourcebook, 2nd ed.)

The Prayer for Illumination. (Why are we singing a Song of Illumination before the sermon?) This prayer asks that the words we read and subsequently unfold in preaching may truly be the Word for the community assembled, and for the healing and joy of the world, and that we might have insight into the wisdom and high demand of this Word...The wisdom of God's Word is different from human wisdom, and therefore it's hard for finite hearts and 'common sense' to grasp it. Therefore we pray for illumination to "see" this hard-to-see-wisdom... But knowing stuff about the Bible is not the only way to know the Bible. It could even be a deceptive and injurious way if it leads us to think of Scripture as a nut to be cracked by brain power instead of as revelation, an illuminating, graced, and saving story that we receive from the hand of God's mercy; or if it leads us to think that the 'real meaning' of the text is somehow embedded in scholarly information about the text, and not in a devout, expectant, and subjective interaction with the simple reading of a given passage, a reading guided by the Spirit in sincere, open-hearted hope that we will be met in our reading and hearing by the living God.
