Worship Notes

...making our worship more meaningful & understandable

If you are tuning in to Cherry Creek, welcome and thank you for worshipping with us on this Sunday morning.

How the Lord's Prayer teaches us to pray. It's very normal for many Christians' prayers to be focused on individual needs and personal life. We're often consumed with praying for our immediate circumstances and the people, places, and events that we most regularly encounter. Praying the Lord's Prayer shapes us to be people who also pray "bigger" prayers. The Lord's Prayer lifts our heads and eyes to see the world a bit more from God's perspective. We pray, "Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name." We begin prayer with worship, reminding ourselves of God's greatness and grandeur. We pray, "Your kingdom come, Your will be done." This reminds us that our prayers are to be echoes of the heart and desires of God. Then, and only then, do we get to the "personal stuff." If you find yourself stuck in prayer or just going through the motions, remember what we pray every week and let the Lord's Prayer lift your head.

Why is it called "communion?" What we do during communion isn't merely a symbolic act or a remembrance—it's more than that. 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 teaches us that we are actually communing with Christ Himself as we partake of the elements. We mysteriously "participate in the body and blood" of Jesus. As we take communion, let us remember that Christ is spiritually present in a special way for us in this sacrament. Let's enjoy the feast!

Giving In response to God's goodness, we are called to offer our whole selves—heart and mind, soul, and strength—in joyful adoration in our daily lives. One way we do that is through giving financially, which you can do in person after the service, by mail or online here: <https://www.elixiogiving.com/App/Giving/cherrycreekpres.org>

May We Pray With You? When we join together in prayer, there is a particular power available from God. If you would like prayer and/or prayer for healing, please come forward after the service to find a pastor or elder and we'd love to pray for you and/or anoint you with oil (per James 5).

Prayer chain If you would like to be kept up-to-date on prayer needs in our church body, please sign up for the CCPC Prayer chain at ccpcprays@cherrycreekpres.org

Assisting in Worship Gene Winters & Steve Goodenberger, duet; Sanctuary Choir, Steve Goodenberger, guest conductor; Caleb, Isaac & Micah Marcuson, readers; David Knopp & Tech Team; Usher Team
