TEXTUAL COMMENTARY:

1. Jesus reveals that the whole of the OT proclaims the coming Messiah AND that the work is not finished.
2. Jesus (God) explains the OT through the NT events and teachings.
3. The OT affirms that Messiah must suffer, die, be raised, AND that the message of “repentance for the forgiveness of sins” must be taken to the entire world.
4. The “promise of the Father” has not yet been mentioned in Luke. Acts 1:8; 2:1-4 reveal that it is the Holy Spirit.

Luke 24:44-49

44 Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.” 45 Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, 46 and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, 47 and that repentance for the forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. 48 You are witnesses of these things. 49 And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.”

“So when they had come together, they asked him, “Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?” 7 He said to them, “It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

“Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. 17 And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. 18 And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Question for Christians: Are you being obedient to Christ? Are you being discipled and making disciples?

1. Share the gospel (Jesus suffered, died, rose from the dead, and offers repentance for the forgiveness of sins).
2. Search to find a disciple-maker that models Christ-like maturity (or a spiritual peer while you search) who can pour into your life.
3. As you grow in Christ, search for disciples. Invest your time, money, wisdom, prayers, words of encouragement AND rebuke with them. Look to Christ as your chief example for this.
