Mark 6:30-44
Jesus and the Five Thousand

Introduction

Greet one another and pray before you begin discussion.
Read: Mark 6:30-44

Discussion

1. Describe a time in your life when you experienced compassion from someone? What happened?

Examination

2. Read Mark 6:7-13. Think back to our previous sermon series. What discipleship shapes can be found in this scene?
3. Mark 6:31 tells us Jesus desires a time of rest and reflection with the disciples to debrief their ministry experience. What prevents this from happening? Discuss the compassion of Jesus.
4. What does Jesus tell the disciples to do for the crowds? Do you think He was serious? How does Jesus demonstrate power, sufficiency, and abundance in this passage?
5. How does Jesus shepherd the disciples in this scene? How does he shepherd the crowds?

Application

6. Jesus reveals His power, sufficiency and abundance in this passage. Why are these attributes important to keep in mind when facing trials in this life?
7. What lessons from Jesus can we learn about evangelism and mission in this scene?
