“He (Jesus) told them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms must be fulfilled.”

Luke 24:44, CSB

Psalm 33:

The psalmist called on the righteous to praise the LORD because His Word is dependable and His work righteous. Those who trust in Him are assured that He will fulfill His promises to them and complete His work of salvation.

Main Features of a Praise Psalm:

Introduction: Call to Praise

Main Body: Cause or reason to praise

Conclusion: (often) A renewal call to praise

Outline Psalm 33:

A. Command to Praise vs. 1-3

B. Character of the Creator vs. 4-19

C. Confidence in the LORD vs. 20-22

MAIN IDEA:

Those who trust in Christ completely rejoice in the LORD fully.

Connection to Christ:

“And they sang a new song: You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slaughtered, and you purchased people for God by your blood from every tribe and language and people and nation. You made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they will reign on the earth.”

Revelation 5:9–10, CSB

Connection to Christ:

“Then I looked, and there was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him were 144,000 who had his name and his Father’s name written on their foreheads. I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of cascading waters and like the rumbling of loud thunder. The sound I heard was like harpists playing on their harps. They sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders, but no one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth.”

Revelation 14:1–3, CSB

APPLICATION:

1. Wait in hope for deliverance from the LORD as your Help and Shield
2. Rejoice in Him whom you trust
3. Pray for His unfailing love to rest on you
