Luke 1:5-25, 57-80
Jesus came for the reluctant.

Introduction

Greet one another and pray before you begin discussion.
Read: Luke 1:5-25, 57-80.

Discussion

1. What have you had to wait for patiently lately? How did the anticipation grow as what you were waiting for approached?

Examination

2. Summarize what we learn about Zechariah and Elizabeth in this passage.
3. What are responsibilities of the role of priest in the scripture? (For help see Hebrews 5:1). How is God's providence seen in Zechariah's life?
4. Summarize the Angel's message to Zechariah. What reason does Zechariah give for his reluctance? What is the Angel's response?
5. Examining the Angel Gabriel's discipline of Zechariah. What evidence of grace can be found?
6. How does Zechariah ultimately show that his conviction has changed?

Application

7. How does knowing that the fulfillment of God's promises are not reliant upon the quality of our faith (see vs. 20) an encouragement to you?
8. Read Zechariah's prophecy in vs. 67-80. What promises of God can you find greater confidence in after reading this?
