

March 26th 2023
Luke 19:1-10
Jesus and Zacchaeus

Introduction

Greet one another and pray before you begin discussion.

Read: Luke 19:1-10

Discussion

1. What gets in the way of your daily pursuit of knowing and following Jesus? What have you done lately to address this?

Examination

2. Compare and contrast Zacchaeus before and after his encounter with Jesus.
3. What is the people's response to Jesus' declaration in vs. 5? Is there anything Jesus has done in the lives of others that has led to your own grumbling and dissatisfaction?
4. Compare and contrast Jesus' first coming as the Son of Man and His second coming as the Son of Man. (See Revelation 19)
5. How does Jesus shepherd Zacchaeus in this scene?

Application

6. What evidence of Zacchaeus' repentance can be found in this passage? What evidence in your own life would you point to, if asked about repentance?
7. How can confession of sin be practiced in your life? What elements are essential to this practice?
8. Is there anything you need to confess/acknowledge before God?

March 26th 2023
Luke 19:1-10
Jesus and Zacchaeus

Introduction

Greet one another and pray before you begin discussion.

Read: Luke 19:1-10

Discussion

1. What gets in the way of your daily pursuit of knowing and following Jesus? What have you done lately to address this?

Examination

2. Compare and contrast Zacchaeus before and after his encounter with Jesus.
3. What is the people's response to Jesus' declaration in vs. 5? Is there anything Jesus has done in the lives of others that has led to your own grumbling and dissatisfaction?
4. Compare and contrast Jesus' first coming as the Son of Man and His second coming as the Son of Man. (See Revelation 19)
5. How does Jesus shepherd Zacchaeus in this scene?

Application

6. What evidence of Zacchaeus' repentance can be found in this passage? What evidence in your own life would you point to, if asked about repentance?
7. How can confession of sin be practiced in your life? What elements are essential to this practice?
8. Is there anything you need to confess/acknowledge before God?