Gospel of John
Doctrines of Grace
Limited Atonement

Introduction

Greet one another and pray before you begin discussion.

Discussion

1. Why is it important to have a clear understanding of atonement in the context of salvation?

Examination

2. What is the biblical concept of atonement? How is it depicted in the O.T.?
3. How does Jesus describe what the atonement entails and who it is for in John 10:11?
4. Discuss the implications of the belief that Jesus' sacrifice on the cross was intended to atone for all the sins of all people versus the belief in a limited or definite atonement.
5. What are some common objections to the idea of limited atonement, and how do the scriptures address these objections?

Application

6. How does our understanding of atonement shape our beliefs about God's character and the nature of salvation?
7. How does your understanding of atonement and salvation align with the perspectives presented in the sermon and texts of scripture?
8. In what ways can a deeper understanding of atonement impact your relationship with God and your approach to sharing the gospel with others?
