Matthew 21:1-11
Jesus and the Colt

Introduction

Greet one another and pray before you begin discussion.

Read: Matthew 21:1-11

Discussion

1. What attributes do you think your unbelieving neighbors and friends would use to describe Jesus?

Examination

2. In what sense is this section of Matthew the beginning of the end?
3. What titles are attributed to Jesus in this passage? Discuss the meaning and significance of each.
4. What prophecy is Jesus fulfilling in this scene? How does Jesus fulfilling Old Testament prophecies help us understand the Bible as one cohesive story?
5. Knowing the events that await Jesus after this, what can you sense can you make out of the the crowd's reaction? Compare it to the scene found in Matthew 27:11-22.

Application

6. In your own life, which attributes of Christ mentioned in this section seem to be missing? What is the danger of having a distorted view of Christ? How might we correct a distorted view of Christ?
7. What can you do this week personally to prepare for Good Friday and Easter Sunday?
