Acts 8:26-40

Introduction

Greet one another and Pray together before you begin discussion.
Read Acts 8:26-40

Discussion

1. Take a moment to share where your life is reflecting Jesus' character or conduct lately.
2. What was the Main Idea of Sunday's message? What does it mean?

Examination

3. Phillip is later given the title "The Evangelist" (Acts 21:8). Where do you see this prove true in chapter 8? Why do think we make evangelism so difficult? How might evangelism be understood as readiness?
4. Trace the Holy Spirit's work in chapter 8. Make a list of all the different ways the Spirit influences the story. What ways is the Spirit still influencing the church today? How might this chapter provide us with the confidence to share our faith?

5. The Eunuch would have been a marginalized person in culture. What does his salvation reveal about the Kingdom of God? What marginalized group might we be called to minister to here in the Treasure Valley?

Application

6. What might help you to grow in your readiness to share your faith?
6. Where and to whom is God calling you to be a witness for Jesus? Name the place and the person. Take time to pray for both.
