PASTOR DR. HOWARD E. JONES JR.

Dr. Howard E. Jones, Jr. is the Senior Pastor of Fairfield Missionary Baptist Church in Goodlettsville, Tennessee, where he has faithfully served since 1990. A visionary leader, educator, community advocate, and radio host, he has dedicated his life to advancing faith, education, justice, and community empowerment.

Dr. Jones holds a Bachelor of Science in Sociology and a Master of Arts in Administration and Supervision from Tennessee State University, as well as a Doctor of Education in Leadership from Trevecca Nazarene University. Before retiring from Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools, he devoted more than twenty-seven years to public education, serving as an assistant principal, administrator, and mentor to thousands of students and educators.

Beyond the church, Dr. Jones is a respected civic leader and served as Second Vice President of the Middle Tennessee National Action Network. Throughout his career, he has championed educational equity, civil rights, economic development, and public safety.

His voice continues to influence the community through “The Howard Jones Show on 99.1 FM”, where he brings together faith, public policy, and community dialogue to address issues impacting Middle Tennessee.

Under his pastoral leadership, Fairfield Missionary Baptist Church has expanded its ministries to include mentoring programs, youth development initiatives, community outreach, and innovative partnerships designed to strengthen families and neighborhoods.

His ministry is guided by the vision of becoming “the greatest manifestation of Christ on earth.”

An accomplished author, speaker, and preacher, Dr. Jones is known for delivering biblical messages that challenge believers to grow spiritually while addressing the practical realities facing today’s communities.

Above all, Dr. Jones treasures his family. He is the proud grandfather of seven grandchildren and one great-grandson, whose lives continue to inspire his commitment to building a stronger legacy for future generations.

Dr. Jones lives by the conviction that authentic leadership is measured not by titles held, but by lives transformed through faith, service, integrity, and love.

PASTOR DR. HOWARD E. JONES JR.

In addition to his formal education, Reverend Jones has pursued opportunities for independent study and apprenticeships with such prominent religious leaders as the late Bishop Michael Lee Graves, Reverend Foster G. Young and Rev. T. E. Sweeney.

Accepting his call to Christ at an early age, his spiritual mentors include Reverend Oscar C. Myles and affectionately Mother Gladys Haley. A dynamic and energetic pastor, Reverend Jones conducts a 15-minute Lifting the Lid Leadership call for daily inspiration, weekdays at 6 a.m., now in its 15th season. This tireless Pastor believes one's actions within the church must also be exhibited outside the church. His philosophy is:

"You can't teach what you don't know, and you can't lead where you won't go."

Professionally, he has served as a probation officer with the Juvenile Detention Court of Davidson County. He has also worked in the Metropolitan Nashville Public School System for more than 25 years, holding positions that include instructor, curriculum and assessment coach, and assistant principal, at Martin Luther King, Jr. Magnet School, Stratford STEM Magnet High School as well as Whites Creek and McGavock high schools among others. Reverend Jones has also served as a guest lecturer in the Department of Education at Belmont University.

Rev. Jones is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and a recipient of the Pink Tie Award from the Susan G. Komen Foundation. He also receives the Community Service Award for Fairfield Church from the Dr. Bobby Jones Matinee and the Music City Consortium. The program is broadcast internationally on the Impact Network.

Additionally, he has received numerous awards and certificates throughout his professional and pastoral career.

Pastor Jones is the son of the late Howard E. Jones, Sr., and Barbara Jones, a Fairfield congregation member. He is the proud father of two adult children, Attorney Ashea Elizabeth Jones and entrepreneur Howard E. Jones, III.

DR. RON W. PARHAM

Dr. Ron W. Parham is a distinguished leader, educator, and pastor serving the Nashville/Antioch community. A native of Nashville, Tennessee, Dr. Parham has been married to his wife, Carmelitar, for over 38 years. Together, they are the proud parents of two sons, Richard (Esther) and Djuan (Brittany), one daughter, Ronnika (Ryan) Redding, and three grandchildren, Amari, Emeri Redding, and Aubrey Parham.

Ordained in 1994, Dr. Parham has served as the pastor of Edmondson Chapel Church in Antioch, Tennessee, for 32 years. Under his visionary leadership, the congregation has experienced significant growth, leading to the acquisition and development of a landmark facility on Hickory Hollow Parkway to better serve the community. His ministry is anchored in the mission of creating a space where everyone finds love, acceptance, and the tools to grow in the Kingdom of God.

Dr. Parham holds a Bachelor of Arts from American Baptist College, a Master of Christian Studies from Union University, and a Doctorate in Leadership Development.

Beyond the pulpit, he is an active educator serving as an adjunct professor and a dedicated community advocate.

A Life Member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., he serves on the Metro Davidson County Work Release Board and has been recognized with numerous accolades for his leadership, including honors from former Tennessee Governor Phil Bredesen and former Mayor Bill Purcell.

DR. MICHAEL JOYNER

Michael Darnell Joyner was born March 13, 1965 to Samuel and Blanche Joyner in Nashville, Tennessee. A graduate of Hillwood High School, Pastor Joyner received an Associate's of Arts and a Four-Year Bible Degree from Emmanuel Bible College in Nashville, Tennessee.

Pastor Joyner continued his post-secondary education at Holy Trinity Theological Seminary in St. Petersburg, Florida earning a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Christian Education. Determined to continue his education, Pastor Joyner received a Master's Degree in Theology from United Theological Seminary of Dayton, Ohio in 2011.

With a craving for more knowledge of God's word, Pastor Joyner completed his Doctoral Degree in Theology from Emmanuel Theological Seminary in 2013. He currently assumes the role of Professor at Emmanuel Theological Seminary.

Pastor Joyner served as a Deacon at St. Eli United Primitive Baptist Church. Accepting his call to the ministry in 1991 at Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church, on November 24, 1991 he preached his first sermon titled, "Living in Disturbed Times", reference text was 2Timothy 4:1-5 and he was ordained on December 17, 1992. Pastor Joyner served as Pastor for Middleton First Baptist Church in Franklin, Kentucky from February 1997 to November 1997.

Pastor Joyner is the district moderator for the Nashville City Missionary Baptist District Association's 129th Congress of Christian Workers.

— ON 37 YEARS — OF FAITHFUL SERVICE
TO GOD AND HIS PEOPLE

Congratulations, Pastor, on 37 years of faithful service to God and His people.

May the Lord continue to strengthen you, guide you, and richly bless your ministry.

May you remain steadfast in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain.

*"Well done, thou good and faithful servant...
enter thou into the joy of thy lord."*
