CHURCH@HOME

For July, August, and September, we will try an experiment with Church@Home on the last Sunday of the month. July 26th will be our first Sunday practicing this! Church@Home is designed to equip families and friends to worship in smaller groups that build community by engaging in meaningful faith talks and experiences. It provides an opportunity to share in communion when we are unable to do it corporately and pray with one another and for the lost, hurting, and broken. It empowers you to lead as you identify and exercise your gifts and calling. Have questions? Contact office@crossroadsnampa.com.

The meaning of the 5 gifts in the church:

- Apostolic: Guard the vision, focused on our “GO” as a church, connecting people and resources to move the church into mission. They are entrepreneurial, pioneering, missional, innovative, thrive in organizational design.
- Prophetic: Adhere to our covenant with God and others, holy discontent, worship, prayer, spiritual warfare, justice, and being Jesus in the culture. Willing to stand up in the church and culture for the sake of what is right and holy.
- Evangelist: Storytellers that broadcast the vision and good news. Redemptive, full of hope, culturally aware and recruiters, communicators, apologists, and entrepreneurs.
- Shepherd (Pastor): Community-focused, working for inclusiveness, family, social connection, emotional health, and loving relationships. These are community workers, healers, protectors, caregivers, and spiritual directors.
- Teacher: Foster learning and self-awareness, providing tools and methods to develop in wisdom and understanding. These are teachers, philosophers, theologians, guides, coaches, educators, and researchers.
