

The Gospel is defined as “Christ died for our sins and rose again so that we may be saved”.

Why is the Gospel exciting and joyful?

---

---

---

---

---

How do you define the Gospel in your own terms?

---

---

---

---

---

How can you define the Gospel in different terms - THAT HAVE THE SAME MEANING - that may be a better way to define it to different people? (The Gospel cannot be changed!)

---

---

---

---

---

Choose one of the following people:

- 1) A Muslim woman with an abusive husband and defiant Children
- 2) A 15 year old boy who's an outcast, always bullied, and the butt of every joke in school
- 3) A transgender who believes all Christians are judgmental bigots
- 4) An elderly lady who just lost her husband
- 5) An emo atheist girl who believes nothing in life is worth living for
- 6) A preppy college sorority girl who just wants to be the life of the party
- 7) A 45 year old man who claims to have been a Christian his whole life, but he actually knows nothing about what being a Christian truly means

Once you have your person, how would you define the Gospel to them? This is not “how would you SHARE the Gospel with them”, but “how would you DEFINE it”? Pretend as though you are actively sharing the Gospel with them and they want to know what the Gospel really is and what it means.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Congratulations, now it's time to share!